

The Coming Messianic Kingdom Psalm 132

- I. Those zealous for God rejoice in His presence (vv. 1-9).
  - God's covenant with David is a determining factor in Israel's future.
  - David committed himself to bring glory to God.
  - David led Israel in the worship of the Lord.
- II. God is zealous for the establishment of His presence in Jerusalem (vv. 10-18).
  - God's covenant with David is unconditional.
  - David's greater son, Jesus Christ, will be installed by God on the throne of David.

The Coming Messianic Kingdom Psalm 132

- I. Those zealous for God rejoice in His presence (vv. 1-9).
  - God's covenant with David is a determining factor in Israel's future.
  - David committed himself to bring glory to God.
  - David led Israel in the worship of the Lord.
- II. God is zealous for the establishment of His presence in Jerusalem (vv. 10-18).
  - God's covenant with David is unconditional.
  - David's greater son, Jesus Christ, will be installed by God on the throne of David.

