

PRESENTING OUR BODIES

Romans 12:1

I. The body offered to God is to be motivated by mercy.

- Mercy motivates through gratitude.
- Our bodies are the totality of who we are.

II. The body offered to God is a living sacrifice.

- This involves making the most of time.
- It is thought, energy, and decision making.

III. The body offered to God is a holy endeavor.

- Holiness is the goal of living.

- The Christian is to be about the business of “putting off the old” and “putting on the new.”

IV. The body offered to God is acceptable to God.

- God likes it when we, sinners, do the right thing.

V. The body offered to God is our reasonable service.

- The sacrifice we offer is informed and deliberate.
- All of our living is to be an expression of our adoration of God.

How should we then live?
